JOHN DOE

Plaintiff,

v.

COMPLAINT

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF BUFFALO
795 Main Street
Buffalo, NY 14203

Index No.:

Defendant.

Plaintiff, JOHN DOE, by and through his attorney, Frank M. Bogulski, Esq. brings this Complaint against the Defendant and alleges that at all times hereinafter mentioned:

1. Plaintiff John Doe is a resident of the City of Buffalo, County of Erie, State of New York.
2. Defendant The Diocese of Buffalo, NY is a Roman Catholic diocese with headquarters in the City of Buffalo, County of Erie, State of New York. At all relevant times herein, the Diocese of Buffalo operated St. Brigid's Catholic Church.
3. In or around 1962, attended religious instruction at St. Brigid's Catholic Church.
4. During the time of the allegations more fully described herein, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin, were employed as priests at St. Brigid's Catholic Church.
5. Through their positions for the Defendant, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were put in direct contact with the Plaintiff. Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin used the power bestowed upon them by the Defendant to sexually abuse and harass the Plaintiff.
6. Plaintiff was sent to be fitted as an altar boy with Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin by the Defendants, placing the Plaintiff in one-on-one contact with two pedophiles.
7. In 1962, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin sexually abused the Plaintiff.
8. Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin forcible touched the Plaintiff without his consent.
9. At all times herein, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were under the direct supervision and control of the Defendant.

10. The Defendant knew or should have known the inappropriate and unlawful sexual activities of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin against the Plaintiff.
11. Defendant knowingly condoned and/or covered up Reverend Gerald Collins' and Reverend Joseph Garin's inappropriate and unlawful sexual acts against the Plaintiff.
12. Defendant had the responsibility to supervise and/or direct the priests serving under their authority, and specifically, had a duty not to aid Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin in their unlawful sexual acts by placing a minor, such as the Plaintiff at the time of the abuse, under their direct and sole control.
13. Defendant violated New York State Social services Law §413 and §420, which requires school officials and teachers to report suspected cases of child abuse and impose a liability for failure to report.
14. Plaintiff suffered both physical and psychological injuries and damages as a result of Reverend Gerald Collins' and Reverend Joseph Garin's actions, as well as other damages related to the incident herein.
15. As a direct result of the Defendant's conduct described herein, Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer both to his body and mind, severe and permanent emotional distress that has manifested itself in many negative ways throughout his life.
16. Plaintiff was prevented, continues to be prevented, and will be prevented from performing his normal daily activities and obtaining the full enjoyment of life as a result of the abuse he has suffered.
17. As a result of the damages described herein, Plaintiff has incurred and continues to incur medical expenses related to counseling, therapy, and treatment, along with loss earnings.

AS FOR THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENCE

18. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "17" above as if more set forth herein.
19. The aforesaid incidents and injuries as a result of and were proximately caused by the unlawful conduct of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin.
20. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff to maintain a reasonably safe environment while he was entrusted into their care.

21. Defendant breached these duties, and as a result of the breach of care of the Defendant and the Defendant's other negligence, Plaintiff sustained the injuries, losses, and damages more fully described above without any negligence on the Plaintiff contributing thereto.
22. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant on its first cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR

23. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "22" above as if more set forth herein.
24. Defendant's with the scope of employment/service sexually assaulted the Plaintiff.
25. Plaintiff sustained injuries, losses, and damages more fully described above as a direct result of the conduct of Defendant's employment of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin
26. Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin used the power and authority conferred upon them by the Defendant while doing the acts that caused the injuries alleged herein.
27. It was foreseeable that Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin may exercise the power and authority the Defendant conferred upon them by engaging in illegal, careless, reckless, and/or other injury-causing conduct.
28. Therefore, the conduct of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin is incident to their service and/or employment with the Defendant so as to be attributable to the Defendant.
29. As a direct result of the Defendant's malfeasance and nonfeasance, Plaintiff was prevented and will continue to be prevented from performing his normal daily activities and obtaining the full enjoyment of life, and has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment.
30. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant on its second cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:
NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION AND SUPERVISION

31. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "30" above as if more set forth herein.
32. Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin, whose conduct caused Plaintiff's injuries, was responsible for ensuring the mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual safety of the Plaintiff.
33. Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were unfit for employment based on the nature of the job and the likelihood that an unfit employee would cause harm to others.
34. Defendant's hiring of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin caused the Plaintiff's injuries.
35. By accepting Plaintiff as a parishioner and student and holding out the Defendant's establishment to be a reasonably safe environment for the growth and development of children, Defendant entered into an express and/or implied duty to provide a reasonably safe environment for Plaintiff.
36. At the time of the subject incidents, Defendant had actual or constructive knowledge of Reverend Gerald Collins' and Reverend Joseph Garin's unfitness responsible for Plaintiff's injuries.
37. Defendant's knowledge made the harm and injuries to Plaintiff foreseeable.
38. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant on its third cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

39. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "38" above as if more set forth herein.
40. Through their positions in service to the Defendant, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were put in direct contact with Plaintiff, then a minor student/parishioner. Specifically, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were assigned to the instruction, spiritual guidance and counseling of the Plaintiff under the Defendant. It was under these conditions that the Plaintiff came under the direct control and authority of Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin, who used their positions of authority and trust over the Plaintiff to sexually abuse and harass him.

41. There exists a fiduciary relationship of trust, confidence, and reliance between Plaintiff and the Defendant.
42. Pursuant to their fiduciary relationship, Defendant was entrusted with the well-being, care, and safety of Plaintiff. They also assumed a duty to act in the best interests of the Plaintiff.
43. Defendant breached its fiduciary duty as their actions were reckless and taken in a manner that disregarded the rights and safety of the Plaintiff.
44. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants on its fourth cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF NON-DELEGABLE DUTY

45. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "44" above as if more set forth herein.
46. Plaintiff was a minor when placed in the care of the Defendant. Defendant was to provide a safe environment for education, spiritual instruction, guidance, and counseling.
47. This was a non-delegable duty of trust between the Plaintiff and Defendant.
48. Defendant was in the best position to prevent Plaintiff's abuse. Defendant was in the best position to learn of Reverend Gerald Collins' and Reverend Joseph Garin's repeated abuse of Plaintiff and stop it.
49. Because Plaintiff was sexually abused as a parishioner/student, Defendant breached their non-delegable duty to Plaintiff.
50. At all times material hereto, Reverend Gerald Collins and Reverend Joseph Garin were under the direct supervision, employment and/or control of the Defendant.
51. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant on its fifth cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
NEGLIGENT INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

52. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "51" above as if more set forth herein.
53. As described above, Defendant's actions were negligent and grossly negligent.
54. Defendant's actions endangered Plaintiff's safety and caused him to fear for his own safety.
55. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff suffered the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to mental and emotional distress.
56. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants on its sixth cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
BREACH OF DUTY *in Loco Parentis

57. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "56" above as if more set forth herein.
58. Plaintiff was a minor when his parents entrusted to the control and supervision of the Defendant for the Plaintiff's education, training, spiritual guidance and counseling. Defendant owed a duty to students entrusted to them, like the Plaintiff, to adequately supervise and care for them to prevent injuries to their students.
59. Defendant breached this duty as they were reckless and negligent by disregarding the rights and safety of the Plaintiff.
60. As a direct result of the Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages described herein.
61. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant on its seventh cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

AS FOR THE EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
BREACH OF DUTY *in Loco Parentis

62. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference hereto the allegations of paragraphs "1" through "62" above as if more set forth herein.
63. Pursuant to New York State Social Service Law §§413 and 420, Defendant had a statutory duty to report reasonable suspicion of abuse of children in their care.
64. Defendant breached that duty by knowingly and willfully failing to report their reasonable suspicions of Reverend Gerald Collins' and Reverend Joseph Garin's abuse of children in their care.
65. As a direct and indirect result of this conduct, Plaintiff was suffered injuries and damages described herein.
66. Accordingly, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants on its eighth cause of action for an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts and such other, further and different relief as this Court may find just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment in against the Defendant in an amount which exceeds the monetary jurisdictional limits of all lower New York State Courts but does not exceed the monetary jurisdictional limits of the New York State Supreme Court.

Plaintiff further demands such other, further and different relief as to the Court may seem just, proper, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
